

Questions on Revelation chapter 10

1. How is the angel of this verse like the ones described in Revelation 5:2 and Revelation 18:21? Verse 1.
2. Some commentators identify the “mighty angel” as Christ. Do you think it incongruous that Christ should leave his post as Commander-in-Chief and appear here as an angel? Verse 1.
3. What is it about the description of this angel that would indicate he was sent on a special mission of unusual importance? Verse 1.
4. What is the difference in the book in the angel’s hand and the one in Revelation chapter 5? Verse 2.
5. What is the significant about the fact that the small book is open? Verse 2.
6. What part of the description of the angel would be a fit symbol of the far-reaching inclusiveness of his mission - a mission to the whole world? Verse 2.

7. What would a voice “as a lion roareth” be like? Verse 3.

8. Can you name some instances when thunder accompanied great events of the Bible? Verse 4.

9. When John was about to write what the thunders uttered, what happened? Verse 4.

10. Since John was forbidden to write what he heard; would it be proper for us to seek to know it? Verse 4.

11. What is significant about lifting up the (right, American Standard Version) hand? Verse 5.

12. What is the modern translation of the phrase, “that there should be time no longer,” and what does it mean? Verse 6.

13. What three things or areas are described as being created by “Him that liveth forever and ever”? Verse 7.

14. Do you think the sounding of the seventh trumpet means completion when the clock of time shall finally stand still or completeness of the gospel plan and the church according to that plan? Verse 8.

15. Do we know to whom the voice of verses 4 and 8 belongs? Verse 8.

16. How many times has John mentioned the stance of the angel in this chapter? Verse 8.

17. What did the angel tell John to do with the little book? Verse 9.

18. What biblical figure had a similar experience? Verses 9-10.

19. When John complied was his experience like that of Jeremiah? Verse 10.

20. Is John instructed to give additional prophecies to those already written? Verse 11.

21. Could the prophecies of Revelation chapters 1-10 refer to hope and assurance to the saints and judgment upon the world of the wicked and the new charge to prophesy refer to Revelation chapters 11-22? Verse 13.

22. What is indicated by the command to “take it (the book) and eat it up” and how would it be sweet to his taste but bitter in digestion? Verses 9-10.