

The Conversion of the Philippian Jailer

Acts 16:16-34

1. What did the damsel possessed with a spirit of divination do before she began crying out?
2. Why was Paul troubled at her actions?
3. What lesson can we learn from Paul's refusal to accept the demon's testimony?
4. When Paul cast out the spirit, what did her masters see and what did they do to Paul and Silas?
5. When her masters caught Paul and Silas, to whom did they bring them and what did they say they taught?
6. What did the multitude do and what did the magistrates do?

7. What did the magistrates command and what did they charge the jailer to do?

8. When the jailer received such a charge, where did he thrust them? What are stocks?

9. What did Paul and Silas do at midnight and why?

10. What happened suddenly and how did it affect the prison? How were the prisoners' bonds loosed?

11. What did the keeper of the prison do and why would he have killed himself?

12. What did Paul say?

13. What did the jailer call for and what did he do?

14. What did the jailer do to them and what did he say?

15. What did Paul tell the jailer to do and what did they say about his house?

16. What did Paul and Silas do to them?

17. What did the jailer do to them? What was done to him and his house?

18. Is there any evidence here that baptism may be performed without immersion? Is there any evidence that children should be baptized?

19. What did the jailer set before them and what was his state of mind? Why?

20. When it was day, what did the magistrates do? What did they direct them to say?

21. What was Paul's response to what the keeper of the prison was directed to say?

22. Why were the magistrates afraid when told that Paul and Silas were Romans?

23. What did the magistrates do and what did they desire Paul and Silas to do?

24. What did Paul and Silas do before they left the city?

Thought question:

25. How did Paul and Silas know the jailer had repented, and when did Luke say they believed in God?
