

The Parable of the Marriage of the King's Son

Matthew 22:1-14

1. Briefly relate the parable.
2. To whom is this parable addressed? (Matthew 21:45-46-22:1)
3. In the parable, what did a “certain king” do for his son?
4. What did the king send out his servants to do?
5. Had the guests who were called been invited previously?
6. Why was it necessary for the king to send out “other servants”?
7. Did those invited seriously consider and accept the invitation?

8. What did some of those who should have received the invitation do to the servants?

9. What did the king do to the ones who mistreated and rejected his servants?

10. Why didn't those originally bidden to the marriage get to attend?

11. How did the king furnish the marriage with guests?

12. When the king came in to see the guests what did he see that distressed him.

13. What was the man's excuse?

14. What was his punishment?

15. Who is represented by the king and his son?

16. What is represented by the marriage feast?

17. Who are the servants sent out by the king?

18. Who was it that rejected the invitation and later mistreated the king's servants?

19. What happened to those who rejected the invitation and killed the servants?

20. Who is represented by those gathered from the highways?

21. Who is represented by the man without a wedding garment?

22. What is referred to by the king's coming in to see the guests?

23. What is shown by the binding and casting out of the man without a wedding garment?

24. What may we conclude about the man's speechlessness?