

Questions on Romans chapter 10

1. How do we know Israel was not doomed beyond remedy? Verse 1.
2. What did Paul commend them for and what did he censure them for? Verse 2.
3. Were the Jews ignorant of God's plan of righteousness or that God is a righteous being? How could they have learned? Verse 3.
4. What was the end or aim of the law and how was that end reached? Verse 4.
5. If life came to the man "that doeth the righteousness which is of the law," why did the Jews not attain righteousness or justification with God? Verse 5.
6. Would righteousness through Christ require someone to ascend to heaven to bring Christ down or what would be necessary? Verse 6.

7. What is “the deep”? If Christ could be brought back from the dead, as maybe some demanded in order to believe, would that be salvation by faith? Verse 7.

8. How does this verse develop the thought in the previous two verses? Verse 8.

9. What does someone’s mouth and heart have to do with the righteousness of faith? Verse 9.

10. What does man’s confession and belief accomplish? Verse 10.

11. What is to be understood in its broadest sense by the word “whosoever” as quoted by Paul from Isaiah 28:16? Is this proof from the Old Testament that every such believer shall be saved? Verse 11.

12. What was in this announcement that was such a great blow to the Jew? Verse 12.

13. Does “calling upon the name of the Lord” involve the sinner’s prayer? Verse 13. (See Acts 22:16)

14. What is the obvious answer to Paul’s three rhetorical questions? Verse 14.

15. What one thought is the answer to the needs of verse 14? Why are the feet of those who preach the gospel described as beautiful in the quote from Isaiah 52:7? Verse 15.

16. When the gospel is preached, what is the personal responsibility of the hearer? Verse 16.

17. How does this verse completely demolish the theory that faith is a gift of God separate from the Word? Verse 17.

18. What objection does is suggested by the fact that all did not believe? How did Paul answer it? Verse 18.

19. What illustrious leader of the Jews spoke of God's reception of the Gentiles and the resulting jealousy of the Jews? Where is the passage found? Verse 19.

20. Why didn't the Gentiles seek God and how was he made manifest unto them? Verse 20.

21. What was the underlying reason for Israel's rejection? Verse 21.

Thought Questions:

22. Why was Israel rejected? Verses 1-4.

23. What are the two methods of justification? Verses 5-13.

24. How does Paul answer the objection that so few have accepted Jesus as Messiah he could not be the Messiah? Verses 14-21.